End of year exams

Here are the end of year exams offered this year at the CSBE. If you are teaching a split class, one copy of the grade 3 or grade 5 exam will be sent to you.

Cycle 1: Around the mountain

Cycle 2: My bug discoveries

Cycle 3: A tasty experiment

Workshops coming up

February 9th:

1. Tiered instructions

For Elementary and High School teachers. This workshop is the same Marie gave last year.

March 12th (AM only):

2. Where are we at in Cycle 3 English?

For cycle 3 and intensive teachers. This workshop will be at the Centre Administratif de Sainte-Marie from 8:30 to 11:00. Lunch box will be provided.

April 27th and May 18th

3. Reading day by day (Part 1-2)

For intensive teachers. English plus and regular teachers are also invited.

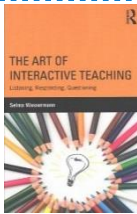

Virtual reality

Some of our students experienced the Virtual Reality. It turned out to be a huge success. If you are curious to find out what VR is all about, contact me and I will try to find a time to visit your students in May or June. First come, first serve.

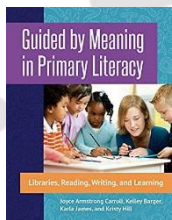

Interesting reads

The Art of Interactive Teaching by Selma Wasserman (2017)

This book addresses the basics of developing good Listening, responding, and questioning skills in an interactive discussion. It deals with how teachers may become more aware of what they are saying and in better control of framing responses and questions in the art of interactive teaching.

Guided by Meaning in Primary Literacy: Libraries, Reading, Writing, and Learning by Joyce Armstrong Carroll, et al. (2016)

This book brings all of the components of literacy together in a meaningful way. This book increase teachers' effectiveness in working with young children to promote early literacy. Throughout the book, the authors highlight examples of student writing, anecdotes from the real world, and connections between theory and what happens in practical application (e.g. read aloud, mini lessons, modeling, guided practice, response, graphic organizers, writing process).
